EL DORADO COUNTY'S ONLY DAILY NEWSPAPER

VOLUME XLVIII

PLACERVILLE, EL DORADO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1938

NUMBER 130

What is this, a feud?

Here's the Barts playing Folsom tomorrow on the home lot, and the Merchants go to Folsom to play down there. If we were going to "predict," we'd guess that each community will have a victory to save its defeat after about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin are closing out their grocery business after twenty-nine years of serving the people of the county. There has been a good deal of water go under the bridge in that length of time and the community has seen many changes. Closing of the Martin Grocery is the passing of a community landmark.

Mrs. H. L. Huntington, of Oakland, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Morgan.

Norman Robotham has returned from a business visit at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker left Saturday morning to spend the weekend at San Francisco.

E. E. Jones, who is work superintendent of a CCC camp in Plumas county, arrived Friday evening to spend the week-end at home.

A. H. Murray experienced an unsolicited unofficial opening of the deer season Friday evening, when one of the animals ran in front of his car "up the road." Before "Sandy" could stop, the deer had been hit but was able to flee from the scene. Rather severe damage to the car indicates the deer may have been badly hurt, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Leggett and their daughter, Dee-Jane of Piedmont, were week-end guests of Capt. and Mrs. Don Hoffman, at their home near Sportsman's Hall.

Eighteen classmates of Jimmy Hoffman from the Camino Grammar school spent an uproarious afternoon of baseball, at Jabillydo, the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoffman, near Sportsman's Hall, Saturday. The two teams played 17 innings and the same ended with a score of 19 to 12. After the baseball game, a barbecue feast was served, and the afternoon ended with balloon busting. Those present were: Donny Potts, Don Hook, Allan McNie, Ralph Hughes, Dennis Danaher, Marty Baumhoff, Kenneth Potts, Jerry Potts, John McNie, Robert Walker, Billy McPhie, Cleo Buchanan, Burton Williams, Thomas Ricketts, Dick Ricketts, Clayton Fasset, Donald Pirtle and Billy LaFever.

Nominating papers were issued Friday at the office of the county clerk for Edith Y. Baalke and Juanita Emerson. Both are candidates for election as Superintendent of Schools.

BIG OAK FLAT ROAD TO YOSEMITE OPEN TO TRAVEL TODAY

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK—The Big Oak Flat road, scenic route between State Highway 99 at Manteca and Yosemite Valley, was open for travel to Yosemite Saturday after being closed by snow for the winter.

Snowplows had been working through heavy drifts to open the higher portions of this road within the park, according to Lawrence C. Merriam, park superintendent. The road is cut through many snowbanks at the present time from Crane Flat through Gin Flat to Tamarack Flat, and there is considerable water on the road due to melting snow. Motorists are advised to proceed cautiously over this section of the road.

It is expected, however, that it will be dry and in good condition in about two weeks.

The road is paved or oil surfaced throughout. The usual control hours on the one-way section of the road between Gentry Ranger Station on the rim of Yosemite and El Capitan Ranger Station, four miles below, will be in effect. Incoming travel will be permitted through Gentry between 7:00 a. m. and 7:25 a. m., and for 25 minutes after each odd hour throughout the day until 9:25 p. m. Outgoing travel will be permitted throughout El Capitan Station between 6:00 a. m. and 6:25 a. m., and for 25 minutes after each even hour throughout the day until 8:25 p. m.

The use of trailers on this road is discouraged. Trailers having a maximum overall length in excess of 20 feet will not be permitted on the portion of this road which is under control. Certain restrictions governing trucks are also in effect on the control road.

BARTS AT HOME FOR SUNDAY

Second Place Folsom Club Comes To Placerville For P-N. League Game

	W	L	Pct.
Auburn	5	1	.833
Folsom	4	1	.800
Roseville W and R	3	2	.600
Colfax	3	3	.500
Loomis	2	3	.400
Placerville	2	4	.333
Roseville Tigers	2	4	.333
Grass Valley	1	4	.200

Following three successive Sundays on the road, with rather disastrous results, the Bartlets return to the home field this week in a sixth-place tie with the Roseville Tigers in the Placer-Nevada League standings.

Their opponents will be the fast Folsom club, second to Auburn in the race with four victories and only one defeat.

Loomis invades Auburn for a game with the league leaders and the third place W. & R. club of Roseville will entertain Grass Valley. "Scoop" Thurman's Colfax Lions, in fourth place with three wins and as many losses, will have the Roseville Tigers on their hands.

Most of the clubs of the league have played six games in the schedule, have two postponed games (due to bad weather) to play and have six games in the balance of the regular schedule to play.

Merchants Play At Folsom

Cliff Swesey's Lads Tackle League Leaders Sunday In Foothill Series

STANDINGS	W	L	Pct.
Folsom	4	0	1.000
Georgetown	3	1	.750
Placerville	3	1	.750
Forest Hill	2	2	.500
Newcastle	2	2	.500
Alta	1	3	.250
Auburn	1	3	.250
North San Juan	0	4	.000

Cliff Swesey's baseball battlers, the El Dorado County Merchants of the Foothill League, get a real test of strength Sunday when they go to Folsom to oppose the league leading club.

The Merchants got away to a bad start in the first game of the league when they lost a game, owing to the fact they were not at full strength. With their best lineup in the second game and playing regularly since that time, the Merchants have won every game and have led fans to believe they are among the best in the league.

Folsom, sitting on top of the heap, will give the Merchants a real test of their strength Sunday afternoon on the Folsom lot.

The second place Georgetown club will have Auburn on their hands, while Alta goes to Forest Hill and North San Juan tackles Newcastle at Newcastle.

GOLD, STIRLING SILVER RIDING OUTFIT FOR SHERIFF

Some time ago, friends in Amador County urged Sheriff George M. Smith to attend their rodeo, to be held Sunday, and Sheriff Smith promised them after receiving several insistent invitations that if he did attend, he would have a "real outfit."

Saturday morning he displayed what he meant by a "real outfit" when he exhibited at the courthouse the bridle and chaps he has purchased. The saddle has been ordered but unfortunately will not be completed in time for use in the Jackson rodeo.

The bridle and chaps are ornamented in sterling silver, hand engraved, with gold inlays, also hand engraved. The outfit is hand-made and a beautiful piece of work which can be fully appreciated only by those who know and understand horses.

"It cost a piece of change," the sheriff confessed, but he declined to name the figure.

REDWOOD CITY, (UP)—H. Walton Heegstra, divorced by his wife on a charge of cruelty, won a division of community property. It amounted to $300, which he is to board out at his divorced wife's cafe at the rate of $50 a month.

WEDDED — Harold L. Ickes, United States Secretary of the Interior, and his 25-year-old bride, the former Jane Dahlman of Milwaukee, shown in this W. W. Radiophoto aboard the steamer Innisfallen while crossing the Irish Set from Cork, Ireland, to Fishguard, Wales, en route to London. The 64-year-old widower and his bride boarded the ship as "Mr. and Mrs. Woods," after their secret marriage in Dublin. They carried little luggage. "I have to be back on the job in three weeks," the Secretary explained.

MR. AND MRS. C.W. MARTIN TO RETIRE AFTER 29 YEARS IN GROCERY TRADE

Couple Have Operated Store And Made Their Home At Present Location Continuously Since 1912; Thank Patrons For Support Of Business Since 1905

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin, who have operated a grocery store in the Upper Fairchild Building for 26 years, and who have the distinction of conducting the second oldest grocery business in Placerville from the standpoint of continuous service, are selling out their complete stock of merchandise beginning Monday, and will close their business as soon as possible thereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin moved into the present location July 12, 1912. Theirs was the first business to open in the new Upper Fairchild building, which had just been completed at a cost of approximately $25,000.

"Mr. Fairchild made the store space to order for us," said Mr. Martin, "with a four-room apartment at the rear of the store, which has been our living quarters since that time."

Born in the year 1862, about three miles from Placerville on the Mosquito Road, Mr. Martin has been a real pioneer in the upbuilding of this county. He worked at the beginning of Camino and Caldor lumber camps, before starting in business in Placerville the first time in 1905, when a Green Grocery store was opened in the building now occupied by the Chung Wah Cafe.

In 1906, just a year later, the business was sold to Oliver Demuth. However, in 1909, three years later Mr. and Mrs. Martin bought the business back and remained at that location until July 1912, when they moved to the Fairchild Bldg. Thus they have a record of 29 years continuous service in the grocery store business.

"If I hadn't sold out to Demuth in 1906, making the break of three years I was out of business in Placerville, I could claim the honor of maintaining the oldest grocery store, from the standpoint of continuous service," Mr. Martin said. However, due to that break, of the three years, the honor goes to Joe Quigley, who opened business with L. T. Butts in 1905.

Mr. Martin states that during the 29 years he has enjoyed two vacations, one in 1915 when Mrs. Martin and himself took in the World's Fair in San Francisco, for three days during Thanksgiving time and the second during last August when they again went to "the city."

In closing out the business Mr. and Mrs. Martin wish to thank the people of the county for the splendid patronage accorded them during their 29 years as operators and say they will miss their work of serving the public.

"Plans for the future—we have none," said Mr. Martin. "Some people retire and live off their means—well I am retiring and will live off my meanness," he added, with a twinkle in his eye.

Mrs. Fairchild said she had no immediate plans to rent the building.

THANKFUL FOR GAS SCHNECTADY, N. Y., (UP)—Sixty-three-year-old Milton Warn decided against drowning because of "too much trouble" in finding his body, so he committed suicide by gas, leaving a note thanking the New York Light & Power corporation for its "donation."

Fred Wessels was among those in town from the Shingle section on Friday.

Mr. Wagner formerly held the office, serving for four terms continuously.

SCHOOL VOTE RETURNS SLOW

Returns From Nine Districts Indicates No Contest Against High School Board Member

Returns in the school election of Friday were coming in rather slowly at the office of County Superintendent E. J. Fitzgerald on Saturday morning.

Nine districts had been heard from by mid-morning and although no total figures were available, the returns from the nine districts indicated the probable re-election of James A. Irving as a member of the governing board of the county high school.

In some of the districts complimentary votes were recorded for write-in candidates.

The districts reported at mid-morning included Camino, Diamond Springs, Pino Grande, Tennessee, Pilot Hill, Cave Valley and Ringgold while Superintendent Fitzgerald had been asked to re-appoint James Glass in Green Valley district, and Hector Williamson in Springdale district, in which no election was held.

The trustees elected in the various districts in which a vote was conducted, as reported up to mid-morning, are as follows:

Camino, Mrs. Sophie McNie re-elected;

Diamond Springs, Roland R. Gust; Pino Grande, William Immer, re-elected; Tennessee, Mrs. Julia MacDonald, re-elected;

Pilot Hill, F. J. Coster, re-elected; Cave Valley, Alfred Brady, re-elected; Ringgold, Andree Meyer, re-elected.

4 Jailed In Gold Case

Government Charges Smuggling Of Mexican Metal Represented As Mined In Arizona

NOGALES, Ariz., (UP)—Federal agents disclosed today the arrest of four Arizona and Sonora, Mex., business men as the government moved to smash a ring of smugglers who assertedly brought $211,620 in contraband Mexican gold into the United States.

Heading the list of defendants arrested in a secret indictment returned by a federal grand jury a week ago was Esteban Ibarrola, Jr., 28-year-old Sonora banker. The others were Edmundo L. Juillerat, 33, Nogales broker and city councilman; Alex Salamondo, his assistant, and Lloyd L. Gilman, Bisbee jeweler.

All posted bonds of $5,000 with U. S. commissioner R. L. O'Neil and were released.

The four were accused of violating the federal gold reserve act by smuggling the metal into the United States from Mexico, smelting it and forwarding it to the mint at Denver with falsified affidavits describing it as Arizona-mined gold.

NEW RANGE WEED FOUND IN COUNTY; USELESS AS FORAGE

The office of the County Farm Advisor reports the discovery in El Dorado County of a weed which, according to Agricultural Extension Service officials, has been known to exist in the coast range but has never before been known to be in the Sierras.

The weed resembles the "fox tail," but remains green longer than the "fox tail" does and is identified as being of European origin.

It is known by the name "Elymus caput-medusae" and is valueless as a range grass and control measures are advocated.

Further information on the matter may be outlined from the Farm Advisor's office.

GEORGE FRENCH FILES AS CANDIDATE FOR TOWNSHIP JUDGE

George A. French, of Georgetown, who was the first aspirant for political office to take out nominating papers in the county, became the first to file his nominating petition when the same was recorded Saturday morning.

Mr. French is one of the candidates for election as Justice of the Peace at Georgetown and his verification deputy was E. G. Cheek.

RESCUE

The Penny Club held its regular meeting at Mrs. Bessie Holdson's on Wednesday afternoon. About fourteen members were present. The afternoon was spent sewing on a quilt. Refreshments of cake, strawberries and cream and punch were served.

Mrs. Birdie Taylor, of San Francisco, who has been at the A. J. Engesser home helping to care for Mrs. Engesser, had the misfortune to break her arm at the wrist early Friday morning. Mrs. Genevieve McBeth was able to take Mrs. Taylor's place in caring for Mrs. Engesser, who passed away on Wednesday of this week.

The season is now on for "last day of school" programs. A program will be given on Friday evening, June 3rd at Rescue Hall by the Green Valley, Carson Creek and Springvale pupils and teachers. Deer Valley school has its program Thursday evening and Tennessee school has its program scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

Evening lights are again shining from Pine Hill lookout station. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald and family are stationed there for the summer.

Malcolm Dixon received word Tuesday that he had been transferred to Calaveras County with the State Division of Forestry. He left Wednesday morning and will be in charge of the ranger station there for the season.

SHINGLE SPRINGS

Those who attended the joint picnic at the French Creek school state that all had a good time and that pupils from Latrobe, Shingle and French Creek enjoyed a fine lunch, races and other games.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cridge and daughter, Mary, spent the week-end at their summer home at Lake Tahoe. The dance at Latrobe last Saturday was exceedingly well attended and all report a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. E. McCormick spent the week-end with Judge Taylor. Mr. McCormick's father, coming up from Oakland. Their son will remain here with his grandfather during the summer months and will be employed in the box factory at Placerville.

The Shingle Whist Club will be entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Ernest Scheiber, at Diamond Springs.

Mrs. C. Best, of Folsom, is quite ill. Heusner.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sheets spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sheets.

Mrs. D. Garney came up from Sacramento, where she has been staying, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. White.

The following report of a picnic at the Big Canyon dredge has been contributed and is incorporated in these notes: Big Canyon dredge celebrated its first anniversary May 25th, it being a year since they started to dig. All employees were given half a day off. Mr. and Mrs. King treated all employees and their families and other friends to grilled steaks, salads, pickles, buns, coffee and ice cream. They played baseball and tried their skill at archery. The children went wading. C. Brandon entertained with accordion selections and everyone enjoyed the afternoon, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. King.

There were 40 present including Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. Felschlin, Miss H. Howard, Mrs. Florence Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cartwright, Charles Brandon, Charles Varozza, Mr. and Mrs. George Butler and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Coré, Oscar Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Les Vaughn and daughter, Madelyn; Mr. and Mrs. Chet Vaughan, Mr. Bibby, Delbert Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Lasswell and children, Frank, Helen, Donald and Hazel; Mr. and Mrs. Green and two sons, Miss Bever, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Varozza and children, James, George, Jacqueline, Mary Lou and Robert.

GARDEN VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Woods, of Del Paso Heights, were Sunday visitors at the Rolfe home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grebles were in Placerville shopping Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Foote, daughter, Erla, and a party of friends from Vallejo went to Strawberry to spend Wednesday and Thursday.

The regular whist party will be held in Garden Valley Hall on Friday, June 3rd, at 8 o'clock.

Mable Veerkamp and Henrietta Hume were in Placerville shopping on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Hinton, of Sacramento, spent the week-end at the home of William Davenport and also visited at the homes of John Rolfe and Guy Davenport.

C. D. Hume, Guy Davenport and Ed. Fleury left for Brushy Springs Monday. Mr. Hume and Mrs. Fleury are putting up a new residence which is to be occupied by Guy Davenport for the season as he is in charge of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Willis, of Sacramento, spent the weekend at their home here.

The Garden Valley school closes on Friday, June 3rd, with a picnic at the school grounds for the children, parents and friends of the community. Those who attend are planning to take sandwiches or cake. The graduation exercises will be in the community hall Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Nine pupils are graduating.

The Home Economics Club of Marshall Grange has postponed its meeting from Thursday, June 2, until Thursday, June 9, on which day the club will meet with Carrie Foote.

The Grange play, "A Henpecked Hero", was given in the community hall last Saturday night and was very successful. The young people taking part are to be congratulated on their very excellent performance.

Mrs. G. Davenport and son, Bud, and Mrs. Daisy Rolfe were among the Garden Valley folk shopping in Placerville Tuesday.

Garden Valley was very well represented at the Scotch Broom festival held at Georgetown. A vote of thanks to the sponsors. We need more of this kind of advertising as we in El Dorado County have lots of such beautiful places to be proud of.

And just as a reminder, while visiting on the north side, don't forget to visit the Marshall Museum, at Kelsey.

2:00 p. m. Worship service, Georgetown.

2:00 p. m. Sunday school, Camino.

Beginning with the first Sunday in June the Evening Worship services of the church will be held at 8 o'clock instead of 7:30. The High school and Young People's Societies will meet at 7:00 o'clock instead of 6:30.

In keeping with "Small Business Men's Week" which has been set aside by the Governor, to be observed by the churches, the sermon theme for the Sunday morning service will be: True Religion, the Safe-guard of Business. Religion is not interested so much in things as in persons, but things are essential to persons and a person's relation to things which he buys or sells reveal the kind of a person he is. The small business man figures very prominently in this process. He is the backbone of our nation. Are we Christian in our dealing with our business men? Are they Christian in their dealing with their customers? Is business conducted in America on a Christian standard? What influences does religion have, or can it have, on business? These are some of the questions which will be considered in this service in the light of Scripture and the teachings of Jesus.

The Vacation Church School at the Federated Church will meet for two weeks beginning Monday the 13th of June to the 24th. Classes will be held every day with the exception of Saturday and Sunday from nine to twelve.

A program to meet the interest of all groups is planned. There will be classes for those who haven't started to school through the summer school. The program will include: songs, games, worship, Bible study, wordwork for boys, sewing and art work for girls.

A school will be opened in Camino on the 6th of June and will run until the 17th, meeting in the afternoon at 1:30 until 4 o'clock.

Another school will be held in Georgetown from the 27th of June to the first of July.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Placerville, Bedford Avenue at Union Street.

God the Only Cause and Creator Services, 11 a. m. Sunday School

9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening. Testimonial Meeting 8 p. m.

The reading room at the church building is open Tuesday and Friday from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock.

"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." These words from Revelation comprised the Golden Text will be Sunday, June 5, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "God the Only Cause and Creator." Include among the Scriptural selections is: "Harken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together" (Isa. 48: 12, 13).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, were also included: "There is but one promulgate. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause . . . In proportion as the belief disappears that life and intelligence are in or of matter, the immortal facts of being are seen, and their only idea or intelligence is in God" (pp. 207, 279).

CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR (EPISCOPAL)
Rev. Rex A. Barron

"HIDEAWAY GIRL" AND "OLD CHICAGO" FILM FARE FOR SUNDAY

Prometheus, Nero and O'Leary; these are the names of the great fire-bringers. Prometheus has always been a hero. Nero is still one of the great villains of history. But there's always been some doubt about where the O'Leary's stood. Those doubts the 20th Century-Fox producers of "In Old Chicago" set themselves to resolve with a result which will be apparent at the Empire Theatre on Sunday.

Two of screenland's newest entertainers, Martha Raye and Shirley Ross, are together again in a musical picture of the type that has raised both to stardom within the past few months. The picture is "Hideaway" Girl, a musical mystery, which comes Sunday to the El Dorado Theatre.

It was only a few months ago that Miss Raye was discovered in a Hollywood cafe by Norman Taurog, Paramount director, who was then working on the Bing Crosby hit, "Rhythm on the Range." Taurog made a place for Miss Raye in the picture, playing a comic role opposite Bob Burns. Miss Raye scored such a hit that she was immediately cast in "The Big Broadcast of 1937" as Jeck Benny's secretary. Again she was acclaimed.

In "The Big Broadcast of 1937" she also played with Shirley Ross, who had the leading feminine romantic role in the picture. This was Miss Ross's first important assignment and like Martha's debut in "Rhythm on the Range" it skyrocketed her to fame almost overnight.

COLOMA

Mrs. S. Cummings, of Burlingame, and niece, Miss Francis Anne Chapman, of San Francisco, are here for a two-week vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Benfeldt and Tom Bayne, with his wife and two children, visited relatives here, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Bacheider, of Taft, visited the Stearns family over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crawford, of Stockton, and their cousins, Mrs. Annie Jaeger and Miss Mamie Thomas, visited Coloma relatives, Saturday.

Frank Kipp and wife, of Rescue, were here, Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Paulson and son, Her-ner Paulson, and family, of Stockton, spent the week-end here with relatives, the Gormley family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Austin and three children, of Placerville, visited Mrs. H. Kane Tuesday. We understand that Mr. Austin, state fire warden, has granted several fire permits in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakeley and daughter, Jean, of Placerville, visited the Gormley family, Friday.

Mr. Malm, of Diamond Match Com-pany, was attending to business mat-ters here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noyes Pratt, of Sacramento, accompanied by Miss Min-nie K. Noyes, of San Francisco, spent Decoration Day here. Miss Noyes, who is an artist, took advantage of the beautiful lights and shadows cast on our Mt. Perry by fleeting clouds and busily transferred them to her canvas with paints and brushes.

C. Hines, of Lotus, has taken over the store and service station formerly conducted by the late James Balder-ston. Mr. Hines states it will be about one week before he is ready for busi-ness as he intends making many changes and improvements.

Mrs. Kittie Jacquier, of Smith Flat, accompanied by Mrs. Jacquier, Jr., and son, Dicky, visited Mrs. Hannah Kane Tuesday. The little boy was interested in a blackbird costume made for him by Mrs. Kane to wear at the exhibition to be put on by the pupils of Mrs. Blair, in Placerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Grotze, of Pollock Pines, who have conducted a store there for several years, have bought several acres of land fronting the river on the north side of the highway from Mrs. Angie DeLory. We understand they will transform the place into an auto camp ground, with several cottages, a service station, etc. Such a place has been badly needed here for years and Coloma is glad that at last someone with courage and faith in her future has decided to make the ven-ture.

Mrs. Dorothy Metcalf entertained Wednesday afternoon of last week at a shower and whist party in honor of Miss Marion Marchini, who will be married in June to Austin Wing, of Placerville. Invited guests included Mrs. Thomas Stearns, Mrs. Cora Winje, Mrs. Lottie Galleher, Mrs. Eugenia Fleming, Mrs. Maggie Veerkamp, Mrs. Panning, Mrs. Florence Hines, Mrs. Mae Webster, Mrs. Gertrude Marchini, Mrs. Gladys Ronzone, Mrs. Ethel Tidd, Mrs. Irma Lawyer, Mrs. Rose Hansen, Mrs. Annie Bassi, Mrs. Charlotte Winje, Mrs. Ethel McCutcheon, Mrs. Annie Jaeger, Mrs. M. Stoltzfus, Mrs. Ella Norris, Mrs. Minnie Marchini and the guest of honor, Miss Marian Marchini.

About thirty hogs in a Sacramento herd died recently from eating cockle-bur sprouts.

Birth of a daughter, Melvin F. Smith, to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Smith, of Rescue, on May 23, is recorded in a certificate filed Saturday with Record-er Charles Marsh.

Mrs. Helen Haslam was a Saturday morning caller from near Pilot Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kimble were among visitors in Placerville Saturday morning from Camino.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB ATTENTION

Members of the Placerville Shakes-peare Club who wish to attend the pic-nic at the home of Mrs. Carolyn Si-mon, Tuesday, June 7, and have no way to go, will meet at the clubhouse at 11 o'clock and transportation will be available. 4j2tc.
